

CPD Questionnaire Fall Prevention

Question		Answer
1	If a room has floor to ceiling windows and a fall from the inside floor level to the outside floor level of 2.8m, are fall prevention measures required? A) Yes B) No C) More information is required
2	Windows leading out onto balconies require fall prevention measures. True or false?
3	A window in a bedroom will be compliant with fall prevention requirements if... A) It has no openings B) Its openings are restricted C) It is protected by a screen D) Its sill is more than 1,700mm above the inside floor level E) The fall outside the window is less than 2m F) The window leads onto a balcony with compliant barriers against falls (Note – more than one can be selected)
4	Only some window types with restricted openings need to be physically tested to prove compliance with fall prevention requirements. True or false?
5	When screens are used to protect a window opening against fall prevention, the screen may be fitted... A) Internally only B) Externally only C) Internally or externally	